

Credentials of

His Excellency

Erzherzog Jurgen Paul Otto Graf von Lowenstein, Ambassador of Beremagne in Germany

To His Excellency Erzherzog Jurgen Paul Otto Graf von Lowenstein.

Sir, your Excellency.

We, Emanuel, prince of Beremagne, have the pleasure to appoint you as the Ambassador of the Independent and Sovereign Principality of Beremagne to the Federal Republic of Germany.

Accepting this position, you agree to volunteer to maintain, in Our name, diplomatic relations with the Federal Administration of Germany, but also to be an intermediate between the German people who wants or not become a citizen of Beremagne, and our Administration.

In case of any problem, personal or not, you can dismiss from your position temporarily, or completely. In this situation, you must be able to provide all the used document of your embassy.

We are at your disposition for anything, via email or social medias.

If somebody ask you how much citizens we have, you can answer more than 200.

We are joining to this letter some files to ensure your functions correctly.

Thanks for your acceptance of this position as an Ambassador, and we hope to make the great choice when appoint you.

You are invited to sign the present document, which will be a contract between you and our Administration

Respectfully,

The nineteen of march, of the year twenty-nineteen
