

Treaty of diplomatic relationship establishment

The present treaty is the recognition between the Principality of Beremagne and the Principality of Surland as free and independent micronations.

The treaty opens official diplomatic relationship between the Principality of Beremagne and the Principality of Surland based on trust and friendship.

Principality of Beremagne and the Principality of Surland engage themselves to respect the integrity of both micronations.

Principality of Beremagne and the Principality of the Surland engage themselves to have peaceful relationship between their micronations, and to solve their problems and conflicts by all the ways without war and aggression.

The modification of this treaty is possible only if the two parts are agree

The Prince of Beremagne

The Prince of Surland

